Konkan Railway Project

1120. SHRI VAYALAR RAVI:
SHRI B. K. HARIPRASAD:
Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) what is the present status of the Konkan Railway project and whether the work is going on according to schedule;

(b) what is the likely date of completion/commissioning and whether the entire stretch will be commissioned in one go or in phases; and

(c) whether Mangalore will be upgraded as the terminal point of Konkan Railway with new facilities like expanded loco and car sheds and what are the other facilities which Railways plan to make for places of pilgrimages/ tourist attractions like Udupi/Malpe etc. on the coast.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI SURESH KALMADI): (a) The Weighted physical progress of the project upto date is about 92%. The work is going on according to the revised schedule of completion.

(b) The project is slated for completion by March, 1996. The project is being commissioned in phases. Train services have been introduced on Roha-Khed and Mangalore-Kundapura sections.

(c) No, Sir. There is no such proposal.

Delay in Japanese city project in Gurgaon

1121. SHRI K.R. MALKANI: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the projected 'Japanese City' in Gurgaon, Haryana, has run up against high land acquisition prices as reported in the Statesman dated 19th November, 1995;

(b) the reasons for which the project has taken 16 years to take off; and

(c) whether Government would advise Japanese industry to choose a less expensive site farther away from a major urban centre?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DR. C. SILVERA): (a) There has been an on-going dialogue between the Government of Haryana and the Consortium of Japanese Companies on the implementation of Industrial Model Town at Gurgaon. There could have been some differences in perception between the State Government of Haryana and the Consortium of Japanese Companies over certain issues including the prices of land. However the matter is getting attention from both sides for a possible settlement.
